

Navigating Synergistic Reforms A Deep Dive into Moldova's PIFC, PFM, and PAR Landscape

DATE: October 17, 2023

Petru Babuci, Deputy Head of PIFC Policy Division, Ministry of Finance, Republic of Moldova

Synergistic Reforms: PIFC, PFM, and PAR in Moldova

2

- ❑ Integrated strategic vision for 2023-2030
- ❑ Interplay of public administration, financial management, and internal control
- ❑ Unified goal of enhanced accountability and European integration
- ❑ Transparency, efficiency, and effective use of public funds
- ❑ Moldova's roadmap towards a robust and transparent public sector

Moldova's Practices Across PIFC, PFM, and PAR

- ❑ PAR: Civil Service reforms, institutional framework, strategic planning and public policy, electronic services, local administration
- ❑ PFM: Macro-budget and framework; budget preparation; budget execution, accounting and reporting; public internal financial control; tax and customs policy; public procurement; transparency
- ❑ PIFC: Foundation of good governance and public sector accountability through internal control and internal audit
- ❑ Emphasis on transparency, legality, ethics, and integrity
- ❑ Collaborative efforts for holistic public sector reforms

The Transformative Power of Integrated Reforms

- ❑ Strengthened accountability, transparency, and public trust through synergy
- ❑ Improved public service delivery and fiscal responsibility
- ❑ Future milestones powered by combined efforts of PIFC, PFM, and PAR
- ❑ Emphasis on continuous evaluation and alignment with international standards
- ❑ Moldova's vision for 2030 and beyond

Key Challenges in Integrating PIFC, PFM, and PAR

- ❑ Aligning diverse reforms with European and international standards
- ❑ Ensuring consistent managerial accountability across all sectors
- ❑ Streamlining the role of Internal Auditors amidst evolving financial processes
- ❑ Maintaining public trust and stakeholder buy-in during transformative changes
- ❑ Continuous capacity-building and adapting to the dynamic political, economic, and social landscape

THANK YOU!

