SGB.net System Operators Management

Gulistan Sevgi

Operators Management

- Within Operators Management function the Sgb.net system operators are registered and controlled.

- ✓ About 11,000 operators use this system in the Ministry of Finance.

Operators Management

- The menu of the system includes the following features :

  - ➢ Search for operators/users/
  - ➢ Registration of a new operator
  - ➢ Password change
  - ➢ Topic change
  - ➢ Frequently performed operations
  - ➢ Operators e-mail
  - ➢ Entering announcements

Operators Management

- There is possibility to make a search in the system on the basis of certain criteria with the help of the search screen.

- New operator registration – detailed information will by presented.

- For the purpose of confidence maintenance, operators can change their passwords.

Operators Management

- Users of the system can change the topic/color of the screen to their liking.

- At their discretion, the users of the system can add the menu or frequently performed operations into the «frequently performed" menu. Thus, operators have possibility quickly move to frequently used screens or operations.

Operators Management

- Sgb.net system contain the window "to send mail" which makes it possible to send messages by electronic mail to all operators or to certain categories of operators.

- Under this menu, there is also the message entry window which makes it possible to pass necessary messages through the system.